Personal Support Worker, Mobile Response Team for Long-Term Care

Full-time and part-time positions available in Kingston,
Brockville and Belleville

Job Summary

Providence Care is designated by the South East LHIN as the lead provider for the re-design component of the region's Behavioural Supports Ontario Project. The objective is to improve the quality of life for residents in long-term care who exhibit responsive behaviours. Providence Manor Long-Term Care Home will employ three mobile response teams, with one each based in Kingston, Brockville and Belleville. The teams will serve long-term care homes in their respective cities and counties: Frontenac, Lennox and Addington; Lanark, Leeds and Grenville; Hastings and Prince Edward.

The teams, consisting of PSWs, RNs and RPNs, will also provide back-up support to health-services providers in crisis situations and will assume direct care for people when necessary, particularly to assist during transitions in care.

Qualifications

- Certification as a Personal Support Worker as per the requirements of the Long-Term Care Act and Regulations
- Three months' current experience in a Long Term Care Home preferred
- Experience in the management of responsive behaviours an asset
- Satisfactory criminal-record and vulnerable-sector screens
- Ability to work effectively with others in an inter-professional care team
- Valid Ontario driver's licence; satisfactory driver's abstract (paid for by Employer)
- Own reliable transportation

Working Conditions

- Primarily evening shifts; day and evening shifts on weekends; rotational on-call responsibilities on days and nights
- Frequent driving to work locations using own vehicle (and must meet the requirements of Providence Care Centre Policy ADM-MM-7 – Personal Vehicles Usage)
- Frequent walking, standing
- Frequent contact with clients exhibiting responsive behaviours
- Potential exposure to hazards typically found in health-care environments
